

Giving back to those who volunteer

Fran Davey, a volunteer at The Players Community Senior Center in Ponte Vedra Beach, has her hair done Tuesday by Brittany Molina, co-owner with her sister, Esther Martinez, of Brittany's Spa Salon of Jacksonville. The occasion is Volunteer Recognition Day at the center on Landrum Lane. Molina and members of her staff were on hand for a two-hour thank-you session for the volunteers that included hair-dos, massages and manicures. They also listened to Keith Moore sing easy-listening tunes.

Manicurists from Brittany's Spa Salon, Melarie Jones (from left) and Angie Reese, polish the nails of Jo Micker (back right) and Dora Drost as part of Volunteer Recognition Day Tuesday at The Players Community Senior Center. Volunteers received manicures, massages and hair-dos as thanks for the hard work and long hours they put in assisting their fellow seniors. Another photo,
